Aretha Franklin

As many people know American singer-songwriter Aretha Franklin, referred to as “Queen of Soul” and her most famous song “Respect.” She had a major influence on many and millions of people loved her music. She had one of the best voices.

In Aretha’s early life, her parents were divorced when she was 6. She stayed with her dad in Detroit. Her mother died when Aretha was 10. When she was 12 she gave birth to her first child. As a young teen she performed with her Dad on his gospel programs throughout the country in major cities. She had astonishing vocals and good piano skills.

She was a voice for black women fighting for equality and liberation. She also made contributions to her father’s church in Detroit.
