

The background of the entire image is a dense, overlapping layer of autumn leaves. The leaves are primarily maple-shaped and come in a variety of warm tones, including bright yellow, golden-brown, and deep orange-red. They are scattered across the frame, creating a textured, seasonal backdrop.

ELAC

November 16, 2021

Agenda 12/19/2019

- 1. Welcome
- 2. Reclassification progress.
- 3. ELPAC
- 4. Parent Concerns

Reclassification Process

- Students should be doing well in their classes.
- They have to pass the ELPAC with a
 - Overall 4
 - Oral Language 4, speaking 3, listening 3
 - Written Language 4, reading 3, writing 3
- They need 3 teacher recommendations.
- This RCHS has reclassified 28 students.

Current count of EL students

32 level 1

50 level 2

46 level 3

1 level 4

155 EL
students

ELPAC

- Test has 4 parts: listening, speaking, reading and writing.
- The whole test this year will be given on computer.
- The speaking test is still one on one.
- We will begin the test in February.