

Property Crimes

Arson

- Willful malicious burning
- W/ intent to defraud is a separate charge

Vandalism

- AKA malicious mischief
- Willful damage or destruction of another's property
- Felony or misdemeanor

Theft (larceny)

- Taking and carrying away property of another
- W/o consent of owner
- Specific intent: to deprive owner

Shoplifting

- A form of larceny
- Taking items without paying or intending to pay for them
- Attempted shoplifting = concealment

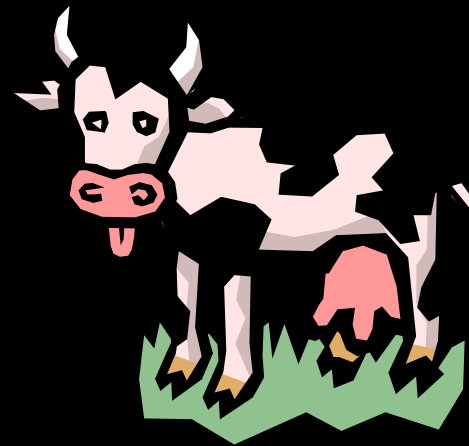

Grand Theft (487 P.C.)

- Money, labor or real or personal property more than $400

Grand Theft

- If the following exceeds $100
 - Farm animals
 - Vegetables
 - Fruits
 - Nuts
 - Farm crops
 - Aquacultural products (fish, shellfish)

Grand Theft

- Any firearm
- Any automobile

Theft by false pretense (embezzlement)

- Specific intent to defraud
- Actual fraud committed
- False pretenses used
- Must cause owner to part w/property or $

Petty Theft

- All others not classified as grand theft
- Misdemeanor
- Specific intent

Extortion

- AKA blackmail
- Using threats to obtain the property of another

Robbery

- Unlawful taking of property
- From a person's immediate possession
- Force or intimidation (pickpockets?)
- Both a crime against property and person

Burglary (459 P.C.)

- Enter
- W/ intent to commit grand or petty theft

Burglary

- Does not have to be forcible entry
- May be an authorized entry as into a store open for business
- Body of person does not have to physically enter building

Building:

- Structure w/ walls & a roof
- Includes telephone booths and showcases
- Carport w/ roof & 2 walls if attached to house

Burglary from vehicles

- Vehicle must be locked and windows up
- Entering locked trunk of unlocked vehicle is burglary

Forgery

- Making or altering a writing or document w/ intent to defraud
- Signing another's name to a check
- Uttering: offering as real a document known to be fake (as a check)

Receiving stolen property

- Receive or buy property that one knows or have reason to know property is stolen
- Knowledge may be implied by circumstances
- Felony or misdemeanor